Foreword

IT has been our purpose to record on the pages of this annual, in a manner worthy of our Alma Mater, her progress during the year 1931-32; to crystallize the pleasures of school life, and to keep alive the precious memories and intimate friendships of our school days.

When, in either the near or distant future, you turn through the pages of this book, may it bring to you both memories of an enjoyable school career, and at least some feeling of gratitude to those pioneers in education, government, and business who have handed us the torch with the expectation that we carry it as loftily as have they.

Dedication

To the memory of WALTER WISEMAM LINDLEY, a "gentleman and a sportsman," a lover of children, for many years a popular citizen of Asheboro, whose estate made possible our enjoyment of Lindley Athletic Field, we gratefully dedicate this, our first issue of the annual, ASHE-HI-LIFE.

RUTH IRENE ANDERSON

Petersburg, Va., High School, I; Grand Honor Roll, I; Newspaper Club, III; Alpha Society; Circulation Manager of Annual, IV.

There is nothing in which Ruth does not excel. If it's a good worker you're looking for, Ruth is the one you should find.

NAN VELMA ANDREWS

Raeford High School, I and II; Perfect Attendance, I; Literary Society, Dramatic Club, and Basketball, Raeford; Newspaper Club, III.

Nan is just a happy-go-lucky girl. She says, "Let it all go; it will end well." This is her conception of life.

MARTHA LOUISE BETTS

Cheer Leader, IV.

Louise isn't the type of girl you see any day in the week," and it is hard to describe her but, all in all, she's an "Ideal Girl."

ROBERT F. BRITTAIN

Those of us who know "Red" like him best for his dependability. We can always rely on what he says.

VIRGINIA ANNE BRITTAIN

Secretary and Treasurer of Alpha Society; Glee Club; Vice-President of Class, III; Reporter for ASHE-HI-LIFE, III; Perfect Attendance During Entire School Career; Marshal, III; Basketball, I; Photograph Editor Annual, IV.

A good sport and a friend to all, but important, too, are her ready wit and subtle charm.

TOM ("PA") BOWMAN

Glee Club, III; Representative in Music Contest at High Point, III; Football, I, II, III, IV, Captain, III; Baseball, I, II, III, Captain, II; Basketball, III.

Gladness of heart—never a sorrow—never a care—this is Tom.

LINNIE FAYE BROWN

Ramseur High School, I; Glee Club and President of Music Club, I; Music Medal Prize.

The same yesterday, today, and tomorrow—that's Linnie.

ETHEL IRENE BROWN

Woman's Club Music Prize, III.

You may search far and wide, but you'll never find another girl like Irene. She's true blue and a friend to everyone.

WILLIAM F. BULLA

Perfect attendance, II, III; Glee Club, III.

Easy-going and good-natured—these words describe "Billy."

WILLIAM A. COFFIN, JR.

President of Senior Class; Alpha Honor Society; Secretary of Hi-Y Club, III; President of Book Review Club, III; Editor-in-Chief of 1932 Annual; Staff ASHE-HI-LIFE, II; Manager Baseball, II; Tennis, III; Basketball, II and IV; Football, III, IV; Perfect Attendance, III.

Sincerity and simplicity of manner have won for "Bill" a host of friends and admirers in school.

ALICE EVANGELINE CORWITH

Saluda High School, II; Basketball, II; Dramatic Club, III.

Alice looks demure, but she loves fun and adventure just the same.

HILDA FRANCES CRANFORD

President Dramatic Club, III; Secretary Class, II; Vice-President Class, IV; Cheer Leader, IV; Chairman of Magazine Drive, IV; Business Manager of Annual, IV; Basketball, I.

Jolly, good-natured, full of fun, but business-like, too; an invincible leader of drives is Hilda.

EDWARD CRAVEN

Perfect Attendance, III; Dramatic Club, III; Glee Club, III; President of Hi-Y Club, IV; President of Alpha Honor Society, IV; Baseball, III; Basketball, IV; Football, IV; Annual Staff, IV; Chief Junior Marshal, III; Captain of Magazine Drive, IV; Prophet, IV.

Willing to help, sincere as a friend, known as a gentleman—"Ed" is all this and more.

MARGARET ELIZABETH CRAVEN

Greensboro High School, I and II; Grand Honor Roll and Civitan Scholarship Excursion, I; Perfect Attendance, III; Glee Club.

With her gentleness, reserve, and dignity, Margaret is a perfect gentlewoman.

NANCY LOU CRAVEN

Greensboro High School, I and II; Alpha Society; Perfect Attendance, III; Glee Club.

We all admire Nancy Lou's bigness of heart, true friendship, and earnest work.

OLLIE WATTS DEMOSS

Burlington High School, I and II; Class Secretary, I; Dramatic Club and French Club, Burlington.

Although Ollie takes her own time about everything, she is always willing to do whatever is waiting for her.

FRANCES ELIZABETH FOUST

Dramatic Club, III.

Oh, just a tiny girl, but she has so much that many of us admire, especially her attractive manner and charming smile.

HOWARD S. FOX

Book Review Club, III; Secretary of Senior Class; Tennis, III; Football, IV; Basketball, IV; Assistant Business Manager of 1932 Annual.

A good fellow and a loyal friend describes Howard in a nutshell.

CARL HAMLET

Book Review Club, III; Football, I, II, III, IV; Baseball, II, III, IV; Track, III.

Carl's sunny disposition carries him over many rough places that the wise cannot surmount.

ELEANOR ANNE HAMMOND

Alpha Society; Marshall, III; Dramatic Club, III; Perfect Attendance, I and II; Staff of ASHE-HI-LIFE, II; Prophet, IV.

Kind and thoughtful of others—a true-blue friend—that's Eleanor Anne.

FRANCES SYBIL HUGHES

Basketball, I; Glee Club, III; Circulation Manager Class Issue of ASHE-HI-LIFE, III.

There is nothing lacking in Frances—and she always has a smile ready for everyone.

ANNA GLADES INGRAM Married

Basketball, II; Treasurer of Class, III and IV; Assistant Editor of Annual, IV; Glee Club, III; Captain of Magazine Drive, IV.

There is a dignified air about Anna Glades that many of us would like to possess, but you'll never find her when she isn't wise-cracking, and, of course, we all admire her.

DORA AILENE JOHNSON

Alpha Society; Perfect Attendance Since Fifth Grade; Dramatic Club, III; Historian, IV.

One who works well and studies hard, is Ailene, and there'll never be another like her.

NYAL JOHNSON Married

Alpha Honor Society; Vice-President of Hi-Y Club, III; Football, III; Captain Football, IV; Book Review Club, III; Annual Staff, IV; Glee Club, III.

Nyal has an attractive personality, which, combined with other admirable qualities, has won the respect and admiration of all those who really know him.

FRANCES ELLEN KEARNS

Sometimes serious, sometimes humorous, always big-hearted and lovable, is Frances.

MAC KEARNS

Friendly, good-natured, known as a good sport—a likeable boy is Mac.

MARTHA INEZ KEARNS

Glee Club; Class Secretary, III; Reporter for ASHE-Hi-LIFE, III; Perfect Attendance, I, II, and III.

A girl that is quiet and modest, one who is fully appreciated only by those who know her well.

WAYNE KEARNS

Football, III, IV; Vice-President Dramatic Club, III; Track, III.

The epitome of good nature, Wayne can always take a joke.

WOODROW LANE

Perfect Attendance, II; Hi-Y Club, III; Vice-President of Alpha Society, III; Marshal, III; Manager of Baseball, IV.

Woodrow is amiable in disposition, studious in nature, and skillful in acquiring friends. He's twin brother to William and very much like him.

WILLIAM LANE

Book Review Club, III; Alpha Honor Society, IV; Treasurer Hi-Y Club, III; Manager Basketball, IV; Marshal, III.

Modest, amiable, studious, William is liked by all his classmates.

VIRGINIA LEAH LAMBERT

Liberty High School, I; Music Prize, III; Basketball, II; Winner in Music Contest, and Cheer Leader, II; Dramatic Club, III; Glee Club and Song Leader, IV.

Good-humored and full of fun—Virginia is always so.

HAZEL LEE MCCAIN

Perfect Attendance, I, II and III; County Music Contest, II; Dramatic Club, III.

Quiet as a mouse, neat as a pin, small and demure—there's Hazel Lee.

JANET MCMASTER

Dramatic Club, III.

Janet is a blonde and a pretty one, too. Also a girl ever ready for fun and a good time; but when the time comes, she can readily adapt herself to any situation.

MILDRED MAIE MILKS

Dramatic Club, III.

Sincerity, attractiveness, and dependability—Mildred has all of these qualities.

INA BEATRICE PARKS

Forest City High School, I; Marion High School, II; Melbourne, Fla., School, III; Glee Club, III; State Music Contest, III.

Ina is always in earnest about whatever she does, but she is always ready for fun, too.

JULIA DANIEL RICE

Basketball, I; Secretary Girls' Glee Club; Reporter for ASHE-HI-LIFE, III; Perfect Attendance, I, II, III.

A good pal and a good sport, one that is with you in anything worthwhile you undertake—this is true of Julia.

*and to

ALVIN ORVILLE RICH

Secretary of Book Review Club, III; Junior Marshal; Perfect Attendance, II.

A friend, a conscientious student, a dependable boy—all this can be easily said of Alvin.

JOHN HENRY RICHARDSON

In a quiet, sincere, and unassuming manner, John goes about whatever is before him.

EVA ELIZABETH SANFORD

Laurinburg, I.

A good sport, a true friend, a pal worth having—that's Eva.

RAYMOND SILER

Glee Club, III; Hi-Y Club, III; Football, II, III, IV; Basketball, II, IV; Baseball, II, III.

Raymond's sunny smile and happy disposition have made him a popular figure in school.

CALDWELL C. SMITH

Dramatic Club, III; Hi-Y Club, III; Baseball, III; Football, IV.

Obedience, courtesy, courage—these are among the characteristics of Caldwell.

CHARLES REITZEL SMITH

Book Review Club, III; Hi-Y Club, III; Staff of ASHE-HI-LIFE, II; Football, III; Manager Baseball, III; Annual Staff, IV.

True and sincere, loyal and kind—you'll seldom find another like Reitzel.

RUTH EILEEN SOADY

Garner High School, I, II and III; Perfect Attendance, II; Girl Reserves; Glee Club; Debater; Basketball; Marshal, III; Editor-in-Chief, Garner High Review; Grand Honor Roll, I, II, and III, Garner High School.

There is always a mischievous twinkle in her eyes, and a smile on her lips, and these go a long way in making Ruth what she is.

GENEVA ELEANOR STOCKNER

Old Church, Va., High School, I and II; Basketball, II; President 4-H Club; Secretary of Literary Society in Old Church; Homemaker's Club, III.

Even temper, modesty, gentleness—these are Geneva's outstanding qualities.

ALBERTA ELLEN THOMAS

Perfect Attendance, III; Staff ASHE-HI-LIFE, I and II.

You'll never find a truer friend than Alberta. There's nothing she wouldn't try to do for you, and usually she succeeds.

BRUCE W. WRIGHT

Glee Club; Hi-Y Club, III; Football, IV; Track, III.

Bruce is a friend to all—true as steel always.

JOHN GORDON YORK

Book Review Club, III; Football, I, II, III; Baseball, II.

To us who know him best, he is always the same true friend, always happy and eager to lend a helping hand.

A Topical Survey of the Senior Class of Asheboro High School

(By AILENE JOHNSON)

The component parts of the class of '32 are forty-seven young men and women, ranging from average to super.

Thirty-four of this number have plodded together since entering high school on that eventful September day in 1928. Forty-six are citizens by birth; fourteen were born in Asheboro; eighteen, in Randolph County, outside of Asheboro; eight, in other parts of North Carolina; six, in other states; and one, in Canada.

In the Sophomore year Nancy Lou and Margaret Craven came from Greensboro to join our class; in the same year Nan Andrews came from Raeford; Ruth Anderson, from Petersburg, Va.; Linnie Brown, from Ramseur; Virginia Lambert, from Liberty; Eva Sanford, from Laurinburg; John Richardson, from Trinity, and Raymond Siler, from Elon College.

In our Junior year the class welcomed Ollie De Moss from Burlington, and Geneva Stockner from Old Church, Va. In 1931 Ina Parks from Melbourne, Fla., and Ruth Soady from Garner, became members. From these facts it may be inferred that our class is not handicapped by a local viewpoint, but is almost cosmopolitan in its make-up. Nineteen of its component parts are handsome and valiant; twenty-eight are charming and demure.

From its combined height of nearly two hundred and fifty eight feet, this class could look into the windows of the fifteenth story of the Woolworth building in New York City. From such an elevation how far can we not see?

The combined weight of our class is four thousand two hundred and eighty-eight pounds, weight surely enough to anchor its feet to prosaic work, even though its head is in the clouds.

The combined brain of the seniors would fill approximately one hundred and seventy tumblers. Is it to be wondered at that this class can discern no impossibilities through its four-score eyes and fourteen, with such a brain to direct those eyes in the right direction?

"Not singly, but together," has ever been the watchword of this Senior class, and together it has waxed sturdy and invincible.

During the first year the members were numerous and most unimportant. Owing to their extreme youth and uneducated minds, all were known as "Greenies."

In the Sophomore year we became more barbarous and war-like, because we remembered the mortifications of the Freshman year.

In the third year all the excitement and the dispute over the Junior-Senior Banquet came. Then also came the honor of having some members of '32 chosen as marshals for commencement.

In the fourth and last year of the class we have reached the twin heights of cumulation and glorification; and this brings the survey up to the present time.

Nancy Lou Craven, not sweet sixteen as yet, is the youngest member of our class; while Robert Brittain, with the dignity of twenty years, is the oldest.

The combined years of this wonderful class are seven hundred and eighty-seven, which is no mean age, even in comparison with that of Methuselah. Consider the wisdom of a class which has seven hundred and eighty-seven years. Empires have risen and fallen; wars have been declared and won; fads have swept the earth and died out since its eyes first saw the light of day. With what an accumulation of experience and wisdom will it go forth into the world. Have we not good reason to expect great things from this body of young men and women?

SCENE—Night Club, New York City, 1947.

Dr. Craven and Miss Hammond are by chance placed at the same table. They at once begin to ask each other questions concerning their careers since graduation.

Miss H.—“Hello! What have you been doing since high school days? I haven't seen you for a time, but I have heard about you.”

Dr. C.—“Oh! I went to college and now I have a professorship in French at Harvard. I hear you have been very successful as a novelist and short-story writer. Tell me about yourself.”

Miss H.—“I am writing novels and short stories. At present I am working on a novel, the setting of which is in Venice. I have just returned from a trip abroad. I usually get all my material for my novels in the Old World.”

Dr. C.—“About how long does it take you to write a novel? You have written a good many, haven't you?”

Miss H.—“Only three. It took from a year and a half to two years for each of those. By the way, I hear you are planning to try your hand in literature, a book of your travels in France, it seems.”

Dr. C.—“Yes, I have considered this and plan to begin work on it within the next few months. To change the subject, have you heard of any of our old classmates recently?”

Miss H.—“Yes, I have just received a report from my secretary, who has been getting information about them while I was away. I gave her this work to do before I left, and she has found where they all are and what each one is doing. I have this report with me tonight. Would you like to hear it?”

Dr. C.—“I should say so; read it, please.”

Miss H.—“I will start with the girls. The most remarkable thing is that my secretary was able to find out something about everyone of our old classmates. This is a long list, but I am sure you will enjoy it.”

“The first one on the list is Linnie Brown. It seems that Linnie has done as we all expected her to; she has become the private secretary to the Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina.”

“Geneva Stockner, I believe, is now the manager of a large refrigerator manufacturing company in New York. You know, she worked up from a home demonstration agent.”

“Nan Andrews, as everyone knows, is giving Broadway a thrill in her role as comedian. She was always good at producing a laugh.”

“Margaret Craven has a laboratory of her own and is doing research work in the scientific field.”

“Julia Rice decided that she would like to try the role of housewife; she is now the wife of a very wealthy and prominent sportsman.”

“Ruth Anderson, after a brilliant college career, is teaching at N. C. C. W. in Greensboro, N. C.”

“Janet McMasters, as you have heard, has been very successful in Hollywood and has starred in some fine pictures.”

“Mildred Milks is another nurse and a very good one, too. She is at present nursing on a large passenger airplane.”

“Ailene Johnson has just been elected one of North Carolina's Senators. We always knew Ailene would do great things.”

“Alice Corwith made good on the stage and is now with the Metropolitan Opera House. If I am not mistaken, she is appearing in New York this week.”

“Louise Betts has just had a picture accepted by the Metropolitan Art Gallery; so, you see, another of our classmates steps to fame.”

“Virginia Lambert sings over the National Broadcasting Company's network every evening at eight o'clock.”

“Virginia Brittain is a French teacher; in fact, she is now head of the French Department in a large Florida college.”

“Frances Kearns owns a prosperous bookshop in a western city.”

“Frances Foust decided to settle down to home life, and is the wife of a prosperous farmer in South Carolina.”

“Ina Parks, after having won several medals in commercial work abroad, came back to New York and opened a business college.”

“Alberta Thomas has been, for some time, a member of the Legislature of North Carolina.”

“Irene Brown is the private secretary to the manager of a large manufacturing establishment in Charlotte, North Carolina.”

“Anna Glades Ingram has made such great progress that she is now the private secretary to the President of the United States.”

“Hilda Cranford is buyer for the dress department in one of New York's largest stores.”

“Frances Hughes has become a popular pianist, and is now heard over the radio each evening.”

“Ollie De Moss has been most successful in the political world, and is, as you know, now Governor of New York.”

“Martha Kearns decided to brighten one man's home; she is now the charming wife of a well-known gentleman in our old home town.”

“This ends the list of the girls and we come to the boys.”

“Tom Bowman serves as head football coach at West Point, and his team has won prominence in the football world.”

“William Coffin has made great progress in the field of aviation. He was recently made president of the New York to Paris Airways, Inc.”

“Woodrow Lane is a bookkeeper for a large hosiery mill in Philadelphia.”

“Alvin Rich owns a large farm in the eastern part of North Carolina, and is carrying out experiments for the benefit of agriculture.”

“Robert Brittain is a contractor and has erected many large buildings in the south.”

“Wayne Kearns owns a huge furniture establishment in North Carolina, located at Asheville.”

“William Bulla is assistant manager of a great steel plant in Pittsburgh.”

“John Richardson, with his early knowledge of bus driving, now drives a bus on the Greyhound Lines from Detroit to New York.”

“Caldwell Smith seems to be the only one who has entered the ministry; he is a well-known pastor in Greensboro, N. C.”

“Carl Hamlet has realized his ambition to become a famous baseball player. He is at present manager of a large American League team.”

“Reitzel Smith, the aviator, is flying the night mail from Richmond to Atlanta.”

“William Lane travels as a salesman for the Underwood Typewriter Company.”

“Raymond Siler has become a sports writer for one of our large American newspapers.”

“Howard Fox is president of Fox & Fox, largest wholesale druggists in the two Carolinas.”

“Bruce Wright entered the Civil Service Mail Department and is now carrying mail in Washington, D. C.”

“Mac Kearns, as a mechanic for General Motors, Inc., is sure to rise higher in the automobile world.”

“Gordon York now owns his own business. He is designing and building aeroplanes to be sold to the United States Navy.”

“These, Ed, if you will allow me to call you by the name I used fifteen years ago, are the facts concerning the careers of our old classmates. What do you think of them?”

Dr. C.—“They are very interesting. I see that each and every one of our dreams has come true. I am glad to know that all of us have found our places in the world and are working hard to make this a better place in which to live.”

Miss H.—“I am glad, too, and I hope our future will be just as fine as our past. I must go now, to fill a most important appointment. Good-bye, Ed; I hope we shall see each other again in the near future.”

Dr. Craven—“Good-bye, Eleanor Anne, and if you have time send me a copy of the report you have just finished reading, please.”

Onward Asheboro!

Onward, Asheboro, on to victory.

Plunge right through that line.

Run the ball clear 'round ole S P E R O.

Touchdown sure this time, rah, rah, rah.

That's the pep, boys, keep your rep—boys.

March right on to fame.

Fight, fight, for the blue and white

We'll win this game.

AUTOGRAPHS

Here's to the beginning
 And here's to the end
 If better times are coming
 I wish they'd be here
 U.S.A.

19 55

Dearest Mrs. Rasmussen, as is it R and,
 How are all the little R's.
 And how are you and R. — and how good time.

Can you find some time to give me some more of your "Stars"? And also your "Stars". You got your "Stars" and you. When I met — I remember — when I met you.

Mrs. — —

I assure, I hope you will never forget the ride when we gave out of gas.
 And Fuchima. "Stop - puff - puff" it, puff" house". Here's hoping we have many more good times together.
